NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER (updated as of June 2023)

I. Purpose and Authority

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of News Corporation (the “Company”) has established a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) with the authority and responsibilities described below.

The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm assisting the Committee in identifying director candidates and to retain counsel and any other advisors as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. The Committee shall have sole authority to approve related fees and terms of any advisors that it retains. The Committee may delegate its authority to one or more subcommittees, members of the Board, the Chair of the Committee or officers of the Company, to the extent permitted by law, when it deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.

II. Composition and Meetings

The Committee shall consist entirely of directors who the Board determines are “independent” in accordance with the Nasdaq Stock Market rules. The members of the Committee and the Chair of the Committee shall be appointed and may be removed by the Board.

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Chair of the Committee, in consultation with the other Committee members, shall set meeting agendas. The Committee shall report its actions and recommendations to the Board.

III. Responsibilities

In addition to any other responsibilities which may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors, the Committee shall have the following responsibilities:

- A. To develop and recommend to the Board criteria for identifying and evaluating director candidates and periodically review these criteria;
- B. To review the qualifications of candidates for director suggested by Board members, stockholders, management and others in accordance with criteria recommended by the Committee and approved by the Board and the criteria set forth in the Company’s Statement of Corporate Governance;
- C. To establish procedures for the consideration of Board candidates recommended for the Committee’s consideration by the Company’s stockholders;

- D. To consider the performance, contributions and independence of incumbent directors in determining whether to nominate them for reelection;
- E. To recommend to the Board a slate of nominees for election or reelection to the Board at each annual meeting of stockholders;
- F. To recommend to the Board candidates to be elected to the Board as necessary to fill vacancies and newly created directorships;
- G. To make recommendations to the Board as to determinations of director independence;
- H. To recommend to the Board retirement and term policies, if any, for directors;
- I. To make recommendations to the Board concerning the function, composition and structure of the Board and its committees;
- J. To at least annually review the Board's leadership structure and recommend changes to the Board, as appropriate, and to make a recommendation to the independent directors regarding the appointment of the Lead Director (if the Board has a chair who is not independent);
- K. To establish, together with all non-executive directors, the frequency of executive sessions in which only non-executive and, if non-executive directors include directors who are not independent, independent directors will participate and over which the Lead Director shall preside; provided, however, that if no Lead Director has been appointed, the Chair of the Committee shall preside over such meetings;
- L. To recommend to the Board directors to serve as members and chairs of each committee;
- M. To develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles and to review and recommend changes to those principles, including the Company's Statement of Corporate Governance, as necessary;
- N. To advise and make recommendations to the Board on corporate governance matters, including with respect to stockholder engagement and stockholder proposals, to the extent these matters are not the responsibility of other committees;
- O. To develop and oversee, in coordination with the Lead Director, an annual self-evaluation process for the Board;
- P. To review and assess the channels through which the Board receives information and the quality and timeliness of information received;
- Q. To monitor and evaluate the orientation and training needs of directors and make recommendations to the Board where appropriate;
- R. To oversee a succession planning process for the Board and committees, including as to key Board and committee leadership roles;

- S. To assist the Board, as necessary, in reviewing and assessing the Company's risks, opportunities, strategies and policies related to environmental, social and governance matters relevant to the Company's business, to the extent not the responsibility of other committees;
- T. To review periodically the Company's policies and practices regarding political contributions;
- U. To evaluate the Committee's performance at least annually and report to the Board on such evaluation;
- V. To periodically review and assess the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval; and
- W. To perform such other duties and responsibilities as are consistent with the purpose of the Committee and as the Board or the Committee shall deem appropriate.
