On September 28, 2021, the Board of Directors amended the By-Laws of Becton, Dickinson and Company (the "Company"), as follows:

- Article II, Section 1 of the By-Laws, relating to the place of meetings, was amended to expressly permit, to the extent provided by applicable law, the Company to hold meetings of the Company's shareholders in part or solely by means of remote communication.
- Article II, Section 2.D. of the By-Laws, relating to advance notice of nominations and other business at annual shareholders meetings, was amended to expand the notice and information requirements required to be provided to the Company with respect to any nominee for director.
- The By-laws were also amended to make certain non-substantive changes and updates.
